

MAILED ABSENTEE - POST-ELECTION

"Post-Election" mail ballots include those ballots that arrive at the office by noon on the third day after the election (generally Friday unless there is a holiday). These ballots are either dropped off at a polling place on Election Day or are post-marked by the voter by Election Day and arrive by the deadline.

The total in this category includes ballots that are scanned as well as hand-counted ballots that cannot be fed through the scanner (damaged in the mail, food residue, etc.). You must total the results from both the scanned ballots (Cumulative Results Report) and hand counts (tally sheets) to reconcile the total ballots reported in this category on the state website.
